ARTICLE IV. HOUSTON MULTI-FAMILY HABITABILITY CODE

Sec. 10-151. Title; purpose; conflict with other municipal laws.

This article is, and may be cited as, the "Houston Multi-Family Habitability Code." One purpose of this Habitability Code is to comply with Section 214.219 of the Texas Local Government Code. The provisions of this Habitability Code are cumulative of all other laws and regulations of the city, as well as all applicable state and federal laws and regulations. In the event of a conflict between this Habitability Code and another law or regulation of the city, the provisions of this Habitability Code shall control.

Sec. 10-152. Definitions.

In addition to definitions appearing elsewhere in this article, the following words and phrases, when used in this article, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

Apartment Standards Enforcement Committee or ASEC means the committee consisting of two representatives from the Police Department, two representatives from the Houston Public Works Department, one representative from the Houston Fire Department, one representative from the Houston Health Department, one representative from the Houston Housing and Community

Apartment Standards Enforcement Committee or ASEC means a committee tasked with coordinating city responses to substandard and dangerous apartment buildings as defined in this article consisting of:

- (1) Two representatives from the Police Department;
- (2) Two representatives from Houston Public Works;
- (3) One representative from the Fire Department;
- (4) One representative from the Health Department;
- (5) One representative from the Housing Community and Development Department;

Building official means the building official and all persons designated in writing by the building official to act on his or her behalf to construe and to enforce this article.

Citation means a legal notice issued by the city for violating its rules, regulations, or ordinances.

Habitability refers to the character of a multi-family rental building free of any condition constituting a material risk to the physical safety or health of the building's ordinary tenants. A multi-family rental building substantially free of such conditions is habitable.

High-risk rental building or HRRB means any multi-family rental building that has three or more units and meets the conditions in section 10-171(a) of this Code.

High-Risk Apartment Inspection Program ("Program") means the program consisting of officials from Houston Public Works, Houston Police Department, Houston Fire Department, and Houston Health Department for the owner and/or operator of any multi-family rental building that meets the conditions in section 10-171(a) of this Code who must comply with requirements under this article, including to register such multi-family rental building as an HRRB with the building official, undergo additional inspections as required by the building official, and timely resolve any notice of violation under the Construction Code or citation alleging violation of the Building Code or of division 3 or division 4 of article IX of chapter 10 of this code.

Multi-family rental building or MFRB means a building that has three or more units. Only for the purposes of the Inspection Program established by this article, multi-family rental building or MFRB includes all MFRBs and all accessory buildings (such as a boiler room, laundry room, club house, or garage) on the same tract.

Operator means the current manager (or, collectively, the current managers) of the real property on which a multi-family rental building is located.

Owner means the current owner (or, collectively, the current owners) of the real property on which a multi-family rental building is located. For the purposes of this article, records available for public view at an official website maintained by the appraisal district in which the MFRB is located are presumed to be accurate with regard to the ownership of real property, but the presumption of ownership may be rebutted by documents properly recorded in the real property records of the county in which the MFRB is located.

Tract means the parcel or parcels of real property on which a multi-family rental building is located.

Unit means one or more rooms rented for use as a permanent residence under a lease to one or more tenants, except that none of the following shall constitute a unit:

- (b) A room or rooms owned or operated by a public or private college or university accredited by a recognized accrediting agency within the meaning of Section 61.003, Texas Education Code;
- (c) An "apartment" in a "condominium" within the meaning of Chapter 81, Texas Property Code; or
- (d) A "unit" in a "condominium" within the meaning of Chapter 82, Texas Property Code.

Sec. 10-153. Construction of this Habitability Code.

This article shall not be construed to alter the terms of any lease or other agreement between an owner and a tenant relating to an MFRB, except that no provision of any such lease or other agreement shall be construed to excuse compliance with this article or with any other law or regulation of the city. It is not the purpose of this article to prescribe legal rights or liabilities as between an owner and a tenant.

Sec. 10-154. MFRB registration.

- (a) The building official shall promulgate a form for the registration of MFRBs, which form shall require disclosure of:
 - (1) The physical address of the MFRB;

(6) The Project Number(s) appearing on the face of either the Certificate of Occupancy or the Life Safety Compliance Certificate issued by the city for each building on the tract; and

(f) Registration of an MFRB as required by this section shall constitute:

(1) Registration of the MFRB under section 28-283 of the Code of Ordinances; and

(2) Compliance with sections 250.003 and 250.004 of the Texas Local Government Code.

(g) No later than 30 days after an owner of an MFRB knows or reasonably should know that a statement on the MFRB Registration Form was incomplete or inaccurate when filed, or has become incomplete or inaccurate since filed, the owner must complete and file an amended MFRB Registration Form.

You also may report the condition to the City of Houston by calling the City's Service Helpline at 311."
